

I would like to join Greater Birmingham Republican Women to help make a difference in our local community, state, and nation.

Enclosed is my check for $40.00 payable to Greater Birmingham Republican Women to become an active member.

Active Membership: Any woman is eligible for active membership upon payment of dues for that fiscal year and may be counted as an active member of one club only, for the purpose of delegate representative at state and national conventions. An active member may speak, vote, hold office, and serve on committees.

I would like to be an associate member. My check for $30.00 is enclosed.

Associate Membership: An associate member will be eligible for membership upon payment of the required annual dues. They may attend and participate in all local club functions. They shall not be expected to hold office or serve on committees and cannot serve this club as a delegate or alternate at state and national conventions. Any man or member of another NFRW club may be an associate member.
